JMI BALLB ENTRANCE EXAM 2024 WITH ANSWERS

Read the following passage and answer the following question.

In a vibrant metropolis characterized by towering buildings and crowded streets resonating with the cacophony of car horns and hurried footfall, legal conflicts frequently make their way into the hallowed halls of the court. Amidst the numerous legal matters that come before the courts, there is one case that is particularly notable – the case of Mr. Sharma vs the city Municipality.

Mr. Sharma, a small businessman, encountered a disagreement with the City Municipality On zoning rules. The city Municipality passed a by-law limiting commercial activities in specific residential districts, including the neighbourhood where Mr. Sharma's business was situated. Mr. Sharma challenged the by-law in the court, asserting that it unjustly singled out his business.

Mr. Sharma's lawyer argued that the law infringed upon his constitutional freedom to engage in business and such restrictions are unreasonable and would have a detrimental impact on his means of earning a living. However, the Municipality argued that the law was essential to preserve the residential nature of the area and safeguard the inhabitants' quality of life. The court decided in favour of Mr. Sharma, declaring the by-law to be unconstitutional. The judge emphasized the importance of balancing the interest of business owner with those of residents and cautioned against overly restrictive zoning policies.

1. What forms the basis of the passage?
 - (a) The changing nature of city life
 - (b) A legal dispute between a citizen and state
 - (c) A poor state of affairs of a common man
 - (d) Benevolence of the Court

2. What was Mr. Sharma's contention regarding the by-law?
 - (a) It is targeting the poor people of society, like him.
 - (b) Residents are enjoying too much freedom at the expense of other people.
 - (c) It unfairly targeted his business and violated his right to conduct business freely.
 - (d) The municipality is too harsh on him and unnecessarily interfering with his business.
